

Bastian Juette - Drums

ECHO Jazz Award winning Bastian Juette studied Jazz Drums at the Universities of Music in Munich and Mannheim.

Apart from teaching at the Universities of Music in Wuerzburg and Munich he played on many festivals like Northsea, La Villette Paris, Yokohama Jazzpromenade, Jazz Baltica, Musica Viva Festival, Muenchner Klaviersommer, Montreux Jazz Festival, Jazzlines Muenchen, Elbjazz Festival, Jazztage Dresden, Leipziger Jazztage, Jazz an der Donau, Theaterhausfestival Stuttgart.

He toured countries like Japan, Indonesia, Marokko, Syria, Jordan, Lebanon, India, Serbia, Kroatia, Slovenia, Poland, Italy, France, Spain.

By now, Bastian Juette recorded more than 60 CDs as a sideman, two as a bandleader.

He plays in a lot of different groups and worked with musicians like David Binney, Rick Margitza, Vincent Herring, Maria Schneider, Nguyễn Lê, Don Friedman, Ack von Rooyen, Michael Wollny, Johannes Enders, Adrian Mears, Henning Sieverts, Frank Moebus, Klaus Doldinger, Jiggs Wigham, the SWR and HR Big Band.

In 2010 he won the New German Jazz Award with the Tim Allhoff Trio, in 2016 he received this award again with his own group, the Bastian Juette Quartet, and was awarded with the ECHO Jazz as Drummer of the Year in 2013.